

Hon Douglas H. Wilkins

I have been married for almost 29 years to Leonard Degnan. That is more years that we have been together than we have been apart. I have never looked back and have never wanted to be with anyone else. We have a very happy marriage and when I say happy I mean everyday all the time. Of course we have days when things are tough and it seems like they will never end but we always pull through knowing that life has so many bends on the road but it always moves on. In this day and age there are not a great majority of people who believe in the institution of marriage. Marriage is about commitment and putting someone else's needs in front of yours and also about compromise. My husband Lenny is the greatest husband and my best friend and am I so proud to have him in my life.

We have been blessed with three children - two daughters and one son. Both of our daughters are off on their own as they are both college graduates with successful careers. We have a 16 year old son Lenny who lives with both of us at home. Lenny is a very special child who looks up to his father and idolizes him. He is not your
